Frequently Asked Questions

Admin questions only. For anything about your own tax position, please book a consultation (see Services and Fee Guide).

1. What are your office hours? Monday to Friday, 9:00 to 17:30, excluding public holidays.

2. How quickly will you reply to my email? Within 2 working days. Around the October and November tax deadlines, replies may take up to 4 working days. Urgent Revenue matters are always handled first.

3. How do I send you my documents? Upload them to the client portal, or email scanned copies or photos to the office. Please name each file clearly, for example `2025-bank-statements.pdf`. Don't post originals unless we ask for them.

4. What documents do I need to send for my annual return? See the annual records checklist (section C for sole traders, section D for companies) in our Onboarding and Annual Records Checklists.

5. When do you need my records? Sole traders: by 31 August for the previous tax year. Limited companies: within 3 months of your financial year end. Records received later carry a €100 priority-processing charge.

6. When is my tax return due to Revenue? Revenue sets the filing and payment deadlines and publishes them on revenue.ie. We tell you your exact deadline and the amount payable before we file.

7. I've received a letter from Revenue. What should I do? Forward it to us within 2 working days. Don't reply to Revenue yourself until we've reviewed it. If it mentions a penalty, an audit or a deadline, mark your email "URGENT – Revenue".

8. How much will my return cost? Our Services and Fee Guide lists starting prices. We give a fixed-fee quote after a free 20-minute discovery call.

9. How do I pay my invoice? By bank transfer or by card through the client portal. Invoices are due within 14 days.

10. How do I book a meeting? Reply to any email from us or contact Sinéad Kehoe, our practice manager. Discovery calls are free. Advice consultations with a partner are €120 for 30 minutes.

11. Can you answer a quick tax question by email? We don't give tax advice by email. We'll arrange a short consultation instead, so the answer fits your circumstances.

12. Who is my accountant? Your engagement letter names your assigned accountant or partner. If you're unsure, ask Sinéad Kehoe.

13. I've changed address or bank details. What do I do? Email us with the new details and, for address changes, a proof of address dated within the last 6 months.

14. Why do you need my ID again? Anti-money-laundering law requires us to keep identification up to date. We may ask for updated documents from time to time.

15. Will you ever ask for my ROS password? No. We never ask for passwords or one-time codes by email. We access your Revenue record through the tax agent link you approve.

16. Can you give me a letter confirming my income for a mortgage or loan? Yes, for clients whose latest return we have filed. Allow 5 working days. There's a €60 fee per letter.
